Talks: This is a space of 40 minutes (Including Q & A, commonly distributed in 30 minutes for talk, 10 minutes for questions). if which you can speak of any subject (Not only Python-centric themes) using a slide deck and live demos if you wish.

We will not be broadcasting the event live but we will record the talks and upload them to our YouTube channel, this includes a screen recording of the speaker's slide deck, live demos, and speaker's in-person activity. This benefits all the members of the Python community who can't make it to PyCon Colombia. By submitting your proposal to PyCon Colombia, you agree to give us permission to record, edit and release audio and/or video of your presentation. If you aren't ok with this, please let us know and we will work this out.

Here is the list of perks you get by becoming a PyCon Colombia 2024 speaker:

Free full conference pass: Gives you access to all talks and workshops.

Access to Speaker dinner: Dinner that includes keynotes speakers, sponsors, speakers and organizers, fully paid by the conference.

A professionally produced video of your talk published in our YouTube channel (see Talk Videos section for more details)

The opportunity to positively impact the lives of over 600 attendees.

Selection process: In order to create the most valuable talks and workshops line-up for the conference we follow this process:

All proposals reviews are anonymized, that way we avoid the bias towards the submitter.

All proposals are reviewed and voted by our Reviewers Team.

The best-rated proposals are de-anonymized to review the speaker's profile, this is made by the PyCon Colombia's Talks Committee.

The Committee decides the final line-up.

We are really excited to get a lot more excellent submissions than we have speaking slots. This process helps us to get the best proposals by trying to avoid the bias to the speaker profile.
